PROVISIONS:

KCHHS Cup “Wirehaired pointers club of Slovakia Cup” is an international pointing dogs competition held in Slovakia. The pointing dog that achieves the highest score in the first merit is awarded the title Winner of the Wirehaired pointers Club of Slovakia Cup and may be awarded with title CACIT. The winner receives a challenge trophy, which must either be defended in the following year or passed on to the next year's winner.

The pointing dog that ranks second in the first merit may be awarded the Reserve CACIT. The best dog of each breed, placed in the first merit, may be awarded CACT, while the second-best of the breed in the first merit may receive the Reserve CACT. The titles are not automatically granted and are subject to the jury's discretion.

The KCHHS Cup is open to all pointing dog breeds, with a maximum of 24 dogs. Each dog must be registered by the FCI. The Wirehaired pointers Club of Slovakia (KCHHS) reserves the right to select the participants.
